What is Job Corps?

Job Corps is a federally funded job training program for young adults. Job Corps was established in 1964, and today there are more than 118 centers nationwide dedicated to preparing an educated and skilled workforce.

Students at the Potomac Job Corps Center receive academic and vocational training. In addition, they are taught employability skills that will benefit you, the employer.

"We have had a fantastic experience with Potomac Job Corps graduates. They come to work on time, have excellent entry-level job skills and make a significant contribution to our workforce."
